

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1363
By Borchert

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Marty Arnold of Benton County upon being selected to receive the Education Consumers Foundation's Value-Added Achievement Award.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should salute those outstanding professionals who have dedicated their careers to providing the highest quality education for Tennessee's students; and

WHEREAS, Marty Arnold is most assuredly one such superlative professional who, after serving with distinction as principal at Holladay Elementary School in Holladay, Tennessee, was selected to receive the Education Consumers Foundation's Value-Added Achievement Award; and

WHEREAS, unlike most education awards, the Value-Added Achievement Award is based solely on objectively measured achievement gain and accompanied by a $1,000 to $3,000 cash prize; it recognizes that for the past three years, Holladay Elementary has been among the most effective of Tennessee's more than 1,300 elementary and middle schools in teaching reading/language arts and mathematics; and

WHEREAS, as sponsor of the award, Education Consumers Foundation is a consumer organization for parents, taxpayers, and their elected representatives; the members gather and disseminate independent and accurate information about schools and colleges via their website; and

WHEREAS, the Foundation's reason for conferring these awards in Tennessee is that Tennessee's Value-Added Assessment System (TVAAS) is arguably the most mature and sophisticated in the nation, and one of the very few which enables consumers to see for themselves which schools are producing the best results; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of the Value-Added Achievement Award is to give recognition to those schools and to encourage others to imitate them, as well as to encourage other states to adopt accountability systems that are equally accurate and consumer-friendly; and

WHEREAS, within each of Tennessee's three Grand Divisions, the top three elementary schools and the top three middle schools, including K-8s, were selected on the basis of their most recent three-year-average achievement gains in math and reading/language arts; schools with principals serving fewer than five years were excluded; and

WHEREAS, Governor Bredeson presented the Education Consumers Foundation's Value-Added Achievement Award at a ceremony at the State Capitol in the old Tennessee Supreme Court chamber on Monday, May 8, 2006, at 2:00 p.m.; it was the first annual presentation of these awards, which recognize the principals and schools who are not only saying, but actively demonstrating that "all children can learn"; and

WHEREAS, Principal Arnold is an extremely talented and compassionate administrator who has worked assiduously to motivate his students to reach their full potential, both as scholars and as citizens; he serves as an inspiration to his colleagues and students alike, and his friendship and counsel are highly valued by those who are fortunate to know him; and

WHEREAS, Marty Arnold truly epitomizes the dedicated principal who is wholly committed to the highest ideals of public service and quality education for his students, and he should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby honor and commend Principal Marty Arnold of Holladay Elementary School upon being selected to receive the Education Consumers Foundation's Value-Added Achievement Award, salute him for his generous dedication to his students and his community, and offer our heartfelt wishes for every continued success in his future endeavors.
